SYNOPSIS

ACT I The Stahlbaums are entertaining family and friends at their annual Christmas Eve Party. The children are filled with excitement as they play and dance together. Clara's little brother, Fritz, teases her at every opportunity.

Herr Drosselmeyer arrives with his nephew and performs magic tricks for the children. He then entertains the guests with life-size mechanical dolls.

Drosselmeyer then presents Clara with a Nutcracker. Fritz is jealous of Clara and snatches the Nutcracker away from her. As they fight over it, the Nutcracker drops to the ground and breaks. Drosselmeyer bandages the doll and places it back in Clara's care.

The guests begin to leave and the Stahlbaum children go off to bed. Clara is worried about her Nutcracker and returns to the parlor, to find her doll and falls into a deep sleep on the sofa, her head full of dreams!

Suddenly the room fills with Little Mice! Toy Soldiers come to life along with the Nutcracker and a battle takes place against the mice and their Rat King. At the end of the battle, Clara faints and falls asleep. Magically the Nutcracker is transformed into a handsome Prince who takes Clara on an enchanting journey to the Land of Snow.

ACT II Clara and the Prince enter the Land of Sweets and are greeted by the Sugar Plum Fairy. Clara tells the story of the battle between the Nutcracker and the Rat King. The Sugar Plum Fairy summons the subjects of her Kingdom to perform for their special guests. When the entertainment is concluded, Sugar Plum and Cavalier bid Clara and the Prince farewell. They sadly leave the Land of Sweets. Clara awakens from her dream on the sofa with her beloved Nutcracker by her side.
